With Love to All Fathers

The modern version of a Father's Day celebration originated in the U.S. and then spread in countries around the world. The world owes thanks to Ms. Sonora Louise Smart Dodd, a loving daughter from Spokane, Washington; it is because of her that Father's Day saw the light of the day.

The idea of a Father's Day celebration originated in Sonora's mind when she listened to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909. Fairly mature at the age 27, Sonora wondered why, if there is a day to honor mothers, why not a day to honor fathers? Sonora felt strongly for fathers because of the affection she received from her own father, Mr. William Jackson Smart, a Civil War veteran. Sonora's mother died during childbirth when she was just 16. Mr. Smart raised the newborn and five other children with love and care.

Inspired by Ms. Anna Jarvis' struggle to promote Mother's Day, Ms. Dodd began a rigorous campaign to celebrate Father's Day in the U.S. The Spokane Ministerial Association and the local YMCA supported Sonora's cause. As a result, Spokane celebrated its first Father's Day on June 19, 1910. Though there was initial hesitation, the idea gained gradual popularity and Father's Day came to be celebrated in cities across the country.

Looking at the heightened popularity of Father's Day in the U.S., President Woodrow Wilson approved of the idea in 1916. President Calvin Coolidge, too, supported the idea of a national Father's Day in 1924, to "establish more intimate relations between fathers and their children and to impress upon fathers the full measure of their obligations." After a protracted struggle of over four decades, President Lyndon Johnson signed a presidential proclamation declaring the third Sunday of June as Father's Day in 1966. Then, in 1972, President Richard Nixon established a permanent national observance of Father's Day to be held on the third Sunday of June. Sonora Smart Dodd was honored for her contribution at the World's Fair in Spokane in 1974. Ms. Dodd died in 1978 at age 96.
